

me to play with them. Nobody seemed friendly enough to fun. In fact, more fun than watching television. If only Mama knew how much I missed her, and Eme and the rest of the family. If I told her I wanted to come home, she would ask why. I would have to tell her how I really feel. She might long rice. I feel very much at home with Lita's family. She lives with her parents, grandparents and two married sisters

