▷ After eight years, Henry Falan has left Yap SEED and the PREL Board.

Mr. Henry Falan recently left his position as the Director of Education, Yap State Education Enterprising Department (Yap SEED), after eight years of service to his community and the children in the public school system. As the chief state school officer of Yap, Falan sat on the PREL Board of Directors along with his nine counterparts from across PREL's service region. During Falan's years on the PREL Board, he was a continuing source of inspiration and leadership and an advocate for PREL, its work, and its staff.

Two years ago, Falan's fellow Board members elected him Chairperson. In that capacity, Falan enthusiastically and effectively led the governance function of PREL. Changes in Pacific educational leaders and PREL Board composition are normal and expected. The PREL Board and staff humbly and gratefully wish to acknowledge Mr. Henry Falan and his many contributions to PREL.
