

Pacific Resources for Education and Learning (PREL)

understands the requirements set out by the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLB). Our school improvement, professional development, assessment, and research and evaluation services align with these requirements and can be tailored to meet the specific needs of the target district or school. Services can be delivered in a variety of formats, including onsite training, video conferencing, topical electronic mailing lists, and Web-based systems.

The PREL Services Catalog contains a complete listing with descriptions of services available from PREL. PREL can provide expertise in the following areas:

- Administrative/Fiscal Management
- Arts and Humanities Education
- Assessment and Accountability
- Culture and Context
- Curriculum/Instructional Design
- Early Childhood
- Educational Reform
- Educational Technology and Distance Education
- Evaluation
- Health Education and Substance Abuse Prevention
- Language
- Product Development and Multimedia Production
- Reading and Literacy
- Research
- Science and Mathematics Education

Credit

Graduate and undergraduate credit is available for teachers involved in extended professional development activities. PREL will also work with schools to offer credit through the Hawaii Department of Education (DOE) Professional Development and Educational Research Institute (PDERI).

Costs

Planning, assessment, evaluation, and research services are available at highly competitive rates. Often, federal funding partially offsets the cost for services for projects in school communities serving high-need, at-risk, and underserved populations. For an estimate, please contact Dr. Robert Allen, Director of Business Development, at (808) 441-1313 or allenr@prel.org.

To order the print version of PREL's Services Catalog, email us at orderinfo@prel.org. To browse the online database of courses and services, visit www.prel.org/aboutprel/EdServices, where you may access PDF files organized by content area, and a searchable services catalog.

